String inverters can in many cases actually reduce overall capital costs simply due to their smaller size compared to central inverters. A smaller building block allows for finer project sizing compared to a central inverter. Central inverters come in multi-MW power classes with oftentimes the smallest inverter having a 2 MW power rating or higher.

Field selectable voltages on the blueplanet 02xi series inverters allow different voltage grid settings to make many KACO blueplanet inverters very flexible in solar system designs. KACO blueplanet series inverters are up usually at least 50% lighter than comparably sized inverters making them easier to install and mount.
